Information for All Entrants

Your work

Entries must be the unaided work of the exhibitor(s) and not previously shown at a Dorset Arts and Crafts Exhibition.

The Association reserves the right to refuse to accept exhibits.

The Association will take all reasonable care of exhibits, but accepts no responsibility for loss or damage. The Association recommends that entrants insure their entries.

Submitting your Entry

Complete the Entry Forms in accordance with the rules for the discipline (Craft, Fine Art , Photography) in which the work is being entered.

The entry forms need to be received by the Entries Secretary by the date shown on the form.

Entry forms can be submitted by post or on line. Form 2 will be returned to you with your labels by post.

How to Pay

Members whose subscriptions are current on 1st July 2019 will receive the fourth and fifth entries free, but must pay for the first three entries and for entries six and onwards, even if these are in a different discipline.

Non members must pay for all work entered.

Please remember to add £1 to your total entry fee to cover postage and administration costs or, alternatively, send a stamped self addressed envelope with your entry.

Cheques for payment of entry fees should be made payable to "DACA",

BACS payment may be made to Sort Code 55-61-09 Account 07378548. Please mark payments ENT SURNAME

Entry Fees

The Entry Fees payable are:

a) Adults	£2 per exhibit
b) Unframed Portfolio Pictures	£1 per exhibit
c) Young DACA and	50p per exhibit
d) People with Disabilities	50p per exhibit
e) Groups	£5 per exhibit
f) Schools	£3 per exhibit

Which form to use?

- Adults can enter any number of the three disciplines, Craft, Fine Art or Photography. Use the Craft Forms 1 and 2 to enter the craft discipline. Use the Fine Art Forms 1 and 2 to enter the Fine Art discipline. Use the Photography Forms 1 and 2 to enter the Photographic discipline.
- Use the Fine Art forms 1 and 2 to enter Unframed Portfolio Pictures.
- Young DACA entrants must be under the age of 18. Use the appropriate discipline forms to enter your work.
- People with disabilities use Forms 1 and 2 in any of the three disciplines, Craft, Fine Art or Photography.
- Group entries may be made for exhibits in all disciplines. A group must consist of at least 6 people who collectively produce one piece of work. A note must be attached to the work stating the number of persons involved in the production of the work and the assistance, if any, which was given by a tutor. Use the Group Entry Forms 1 and 2.
- School entries are by groups of students. The work can relate to the curriculum, a club activity or special project. Use School Entry Forms 1 and 2.

Multiple individual entries. Organisations who wish to enter many pieces of work under the umbrella name of the organisation can use Multiple Individual Entries Forms 1 and 2 and Continuation.

Handing in your work

Entries must be brought to Purbeck School on Handing-In Day (Monday 29th July) together with form 2. Please ensure that the labels provided are firmly attached to the entry.

We are unable to store wrappings, boxes or other packing materials.

If you have difficulty delivering your exhibits, please contact the Entries Secretary as it may be possible to make arrangements for them to be collected and delivered to the School.

Collecting your work

Work must be collected at the end of the final day of the exhibition.

Remember to bring form 2 with you. Your work will only be released to you on production of this form. This is to ensure that work is collected by its rightful owner. If someone is collecting your work on your behalf, please give them your form 2.

The Association has no facilities to store any unclaimed work. If you have any difficulty in collecting your work, you must discuss any alternative arrangements with the Entries Secretary at the earliest opportunity.

Selling your work

Work entered in the Exhibition may be offered for sale. The Association will deduct 20% commission on all sales. Payment will be taken by the Association through the Exhibition Sales and Information desk, and payment will be made to the exhibitor by cheque, or direct to a bank account if requested, within 28 days of the end of the Exhibition.

Items sold during the Exhibition remain on display until the Exhibition closes, subject to the Chairman's discretion.

Judging, Certificates and Trophies

All craft entries will be considered for awards, unless the exhibitor indicates on the entry form that the work is not to be judged. The craft judges will complete comment sheets for each craft entry. The comment sheets will be available for collection during the exhibition. Please note, the judges' comment sheets are NOT displayed with the exhibits in the exhibition.

All photography entries will be considered for awards, within the appropriate category, unless the exhibitor indicates on the entry form that the work is not to be judged. Due to the high number of photographic entries, individual comment sheets will not be completed.

Fine Art entries entered in the "Botanical Illustration", "Dorset Life, Landscape or Seascape" and "Novice" categories will be judged. Fine Art entries which are not entered in one of the specific categories will be class as open entries and therefore not judged. The judges will complete comment sheets where appropriate.

Certificates can be awarded in any of the three main disciplines

Gold - Work of Outstanding Merit

Silver - Work of Special Merit

Blue - Highly Commended

Green - Commended

Certificates and trophies will be awarded at the judges' discretion. Only in exceptional circumstances will a trophy be awarded to an entry which does not merit a Gold certificate.

Certificates will be available for collection throughout the Exhibition. Trophies will be presented on Sunday 4th August. Trophy winners will be contacted by the Entries Secretary and invited to attend the presentation.

Trophies remain the property of the Association. Trophies awarded at the 2018 Exhibition must be returned to the Secretary on or before Handing-In Day Monday 29th July 2019.

The Association reserves the right to cancel judging of a section.

The Champion of Champions Competition

The "Rose Family Trophy" will be awarded to a 2018 Trophy winner whose winning entry from 2018, together with one new entry in the same section in the 2019 exhibition, makes him/her the person most worthy of the title "Champion of Champions 2019". Those eligible to enter work for this trophy will be invited to do so by the Entries Secretary. There is no entry fee for work entered for this trophy.

Taking Photographs

Photography of exhibits in the exhibition is permitted for private/ personal purposes only. Please note, your work may be photographed by visitors to the exhibition and by Dorset Arts & Crafts Association for publicity purposes. Commercial photography is not permitted without the express permission of the committee.

Volunteering and Stewarding

The Association would not be able to hold the annual exhibition of work without the work of volunteers. If you would like to be part of the team you would be very welcome.

Exhibition stewards are essential, both to help visitors enjoy the exhibition and to keep your work safe.

If you are entering work, please try to volunteer for at least one session if possible. Simply complete the volunteer or stewarding form with your details and preferred slot, and returned by post or email to the Chief Steward. 24 Nottingham Lane, Weymouth, DT3 5DF info@dorsetartsandcrafts.org

Display of Work

Every effort will be made to display all entries, but if space should prove to be insufficient, the Committee reserves the right to select for display.

Craft

Guidance for Craft Entrants
